DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Figure 1 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 1, the phrase "of the type"(lines 3 and 12) renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

In claim 1, line 15, the phrase "which extends generally transversely" is confusing because there is no mentioned reference as to what "the axis" is "generally transversely to?" It appears that it is transverse to the longitudinal axis. Please clarify.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the incorrectly positioned preform" in line 18. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-6 and 9-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Doudement et al. USP 5,186,307.

See the attached marked up drawing figure 3 of Doudement et al. depicting the claimed features.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 7, 8, 19, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Doudement et al. USP 5,186,307.

Doudement et al. teach the claimed invention except for his shaft being of parallelepipedic or triangular. Doudement et al. teach a five-sided shaped shaft 20 for connecting his paddles 19. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice as to the shape of the shaft, since it is well known that many types of shafts exist and the selection of any of these would be well within the level of ordinary skill in the art. Furthermore the number of sides on any shaft of this nature would be part of a particular design consideration based on many factors which are appropriate to that particular device, such as the speed of the performs feeding to the shaft and the speed of the shaft which would dictate how many paddles are necessary.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
